Norwich City's Big Cup Dream Ends, Luton Town Captures Replay, 1-0

Rainy Weather Has Its Points

What do baseball players do when they can't play baseball? Some fish, and there have been many opportunities this spring in Florida, as rain washes out practice sessions. Pittsburgh Pirates were rained out yesterday, so Roy Face (left), Bill Hall, Hank Foiles and Bob Skinner took a day's fishing break at Ft. Myers, Fla.

BIRMINGHAM, England (Reuters)—Luton Town has ended the dreams of underdog-loving English soccer fans by finally eliminating Norwich City in the Football Association Cup semi-final replay.

Norwich, looked on as a run-of-the-mill team from a small town on England's east coast, went down 1-0 Wednesday to end its two-month giant-killing climb through some of the country's best teams.

Luton, held to a 1-1 draw by Norwich Saturday, now meets Nottingham Forest in the cup final May 2.

It will be Luton's first trip to the final. To get there they had to go all out to stop Norwich from becoming the first Third-Division team ever to play in the final, top event in English soccer season.

Norwich did all the attacking and swarmed around the Luton goal practically the whole game but couldn't match a goal by Billy Bingham, the winners' right winger.

Eleven minutes after half-time Luton's George Cummins hit the ball across the goal-mouth. Ron Morton passed it back and Bingham, hidden by a crowd of defenders, banged a shot into the top of the net.

Norwich right winger Errol Crossan, bidding to be the first Canadian ever to play in the cup final, nearly tied it seconds later. The Montreal native ran nearly the length of the field with the ball, then found his way blocked and passed to Bobby Brennan, who shot straight at the Luton goalie.

Crossan, who learned his soccer in British Columbia's Pacific Coast League, made another gallant attempt in the closing minutes as he flung himself at a header right on the Luton goal-line but missed.

Norwich, the fourth Third-Division team in history to reach the semi-final, knocked out Manchester United, Cardiff, Tottenham and Sheffield United before meeting Luton.

More than 500 teams started out last September in the Football Association Cup competition, which is run separately from league play.

Grapefruit 'Pennant Race' Runaway for Boston Sox

New York Yankees rule as heavy favorites to win another American League pennant, but Boston Red Sox are the club that look like champions as far as the spring grapefruit circuit is concerned.

Boston defeated Cleveland Indians, 14-7, yesterday in one of two games to survive the rain. They are now playing at a torrid .900 clip with only one loss in 10 games, while the Yankees are running seventh with a 4-5 record. Baltimore is second at 5 and 3.

Ted Bowsfield of Penticton, B.C., gave up seven runs in six innings for the Red Sox, but was credited with his second win of the spring training sessions.

Pumpsie Green slammed two home runs for the Red Sox. Dick Gernert and Billy Consolo each got one, and Rocky Colovito hit one for Cleveland.

In the National League, Los Angeles Dodgers are the only club above .500 with a 5-2 record. San Francisco Giants dropped Chicago, 11-8, in yesterday's action.

Rugby Tourists Trim Japanese

TOKYO — B.C.'s touring rugby side defeated the all-Kanto Japanese squad, 16-3, yesterday for its fifth victory of the eight-game good will tour of Japan.

The Totems, who have lost one game and tied one, play their final match here Sunday against the Japanese all-stars.

An enthusiastic crowd of 10,000 watched the heavier Canadians do all their scoring in the first half. Several of the B.C. stars were kept on the bench during the second half to save them for next Sunday's game.

George Puil scored two trys and Denny Veitch and Ted Hunt got one each. Neal Henderson converted two. Japan's only score came in the second half on a penalty kick by Nishi Hirasawa.

The game was refereed by B.C. manager Dave Mackenzie of Victoria.

Qualicum Trims Vic

Qualicum College's senior rugby team downed Victoria High 6-0 at Vic High yesterday.

Still shaken from their unsuccessful bid for the Howard Russell series, the Vics could not seem to muster the necessary energy to take them across the line, although they controlled the ball a creditable amount of the time.

Dave Williams and Dave Thompson took the honors for Qualicum with a try each in fast and rapid play which left the tired Vic High team bewildered.

Remember When:

Walter (Turk) Broda of Toronto Maple Leafs won the Vezina trophy as leading goalie in the NHL 18 years ago last night after a close race with Detroit's Johnny Mowers. Boston Bruins decided the issue by scoring four goals against Detroit in the season's final game. Broda again won the Vezina in 1948.

Marathon List Could Top 60

About 60 runners will make up the field for this year's Canadian Legion race March 25. Fourteen trophies will be up for competition in this open race of five gruelling miles around the Lansdowne area.

Defending champion John Cliff will get tough competition from his own Victoria High team-mate, Tommy Burgess, as well as the other 12 Vic High runners entering to maintain their reputation as Pacific North West and provincial champions.

Considered the four to watch are John Cliff, defending champion, Tommy Burgess, rival Fred Waters of Shawnigan, and John Paychek of Royal Roads.

Anyone wishing to enter the run independently should contact Gordon Hartley at Victoria High School.

The race will start and finish on the track in front of the stadium at Victoria High School.
